

THE PIOCHE DAILY RECORD.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1876

At Damariscotta, Me., in an area of a hundred square rods are piled the shells of one hundred millions of oysters. Prof. Gunning thinks the multitude of eaters may not have been very great, and that the heaps tell of time rather than number, as no oyster has lived in the rivers near within the memory of man. Instruments of stone, bone and copper are the only human relics found among the shells, and their positions show that no great geological event has occurred since the heaps were formed.

Dr. Winthrop, the Boston strong man who could lift 3,000 pounds, died a few weeks ago. It is said that many years ago he was a weak thin, puny student at a New England college. Some one of his class-mates insulted him. He said nothing, but went into training, developed his muscles, flexors and extensors and then thrashed the insulters. Discovering that his muscle possessed special power of development, he went on it heavy and died famous. Such is life.

The White Pine County Republican Convention met at Hamilton last Tuesday. El. Reum was nominated for Sheriff; W. R. Forrest, for County Clerk; Wm. Timmon, for Recorder; J. B. Barker, for District Attorney; J. B. Williamson, for Assessor; Wm. Purdy, for Treasurer; H. A. Conins, for State Senator; and the following gentlemen for the Assembly; S. S. Burt, George D. Coburn and Charles Kimball.

The White Pine County Democratic Convention met at Hamilton last Thursday. Thomas Rockhill, A. G. Lowery, E. Orser, and John Webber were nominated for the Assembly. James Mather received the nomination for Sheriff; L. A. Hauck, for County Clerk; Dr. P. M. Ellison, for Assessor; M. W. Henry, for Recorder; George P. McConkey, for Treasurer; B. K. Davis, for District Attorney. A Skillman received the nomination for State Senator.

Talking about the death of Professor Sacili, the Virginia Enterprise says that the machine which bore his mind stopped as winds do when lifted from hot valleys, they meet the cool currents descending from great mountains. When that interesting meteorological event takes place it usually rains. Wonder what the Enterprise means.

In British Columbia Elsha Mansell, a negro, is expected soon to receive the order of knighthood. He is the son of a former West Indian slave, and his wife's freedom was purchased by her father in Georgia while she was a child. He has amassed a large fortune and is intelligent and cultured.

The Virginia Enterprise says a picture of the Storey County Democratic Convention, if sent to Nass would make him sick. Send him one in three colors if possible. If such would be the glad result they will not have met in vain.

Lucius P. Robinson, the Democratic nominee for Governor of New York, was the editor of the New York Sun in 1846. This, together with other iniquities, is now brought up against him.

The fastest four-mile heat on record was made on the Louisville, Kentucky, track last Tuesday, by Tenbrocke, to 7:15 1/2, thus beating Follower's famous time of 7:17 1/2 in 1874.

There is a great influx of Hebrews to Palestine up Jerusalem. The Jewish population of that city is double what it was ten years ago.

The Virginia City papers announce that in that city twenty yards of calico can be bought for one dollar.

The "British-American," of Virginia City, are holding meetings that they will not allow newspaper reporters to attend.

The subscription fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of the men who died with Custer amounts to $5,000.

It is considered that Texas, will, before long, be divided into two separate and distinct States. The "Lone Star" will become a binary.

It is considered probable that Hon. H. S. Stevens will be re-elected Congressional delegate from Arizona.

General Braxton Bragg dropped dead in Giveston, Texas, last Wednesday morning.

The best shots at Creedmoor were blue-eyed men.

The Silver State thinks that Humboldt county will give 300 majority for Tilden.

Georgia holds its State election to-morrow. It will doubtless go Democratic.

The Storey County Democratic Convention that adjourned at Gold Hill last Tuesday, finished the nominations as follows: W. Frank Stewart was nominated for State Senator from Virginia and Flowery District, and E. A. Schultz for the same position from Gold Hill and American Flat. The following gentlemen were nominated for the Assembly: A. Engles, W. Stewart, E. Burns, James Rule, John Henderson, T. J. Shields, A. Vaenberg, F. A. Wise, J. F. Fitzpatrick, A. C. Dennis, Robert Beegan, W. Young, and D. Sutherland.

There are a great many men in our town who want office badly enough, but haven't the courage to say so.—[Humboldt Register.]

Which is not the case in Eureka.—[Eureka Sentinel.]

Rev. Jabez Walker is delivering temperance lectures in Virginia, where the harvest is ripe for the sickle. Jabez has a good field to work in.

The Humboldt County Fair commences to-morrow. Some of the best horses on the Coast will run for purses.

CENTENNIAL AWARDS.—The following is a list of the medals and diplomas awarded to Nevada exhibitors at the Centennial Exhibition:

Curtis, Virginia City, silver ores gold-bearing; Melville Curtis, Austin, silver bullion, silver pulp, etc.; John Lambert, Virginia City, silver ores gold-bearing; B. F. Leet, Churchill county, salt and saltpeter; John W. Mackay, Virginia City, silver ores gold-bearing; Adam McLean, Belmont, silver ores; W. H. Allen, Belleville, silver ores; Henry Balch, Virginia City, silver ores gold-bearing; L. S. Jones, Virginia City, silver ores gold-bearing; Thomas Wren, Eureka, silver and lead ores; Theodore Winters, Virginia City, silver ores gold-bearing; E. R. Willis, Pine Grove District, gold ores; Sweeney, Cortez Mining District, lead ores; T. G. Taylor, Virginia City, silver ores, gold-bearing; John Shaw-Enrke, silver and lead ores gold-bearing; Rhoads and Wasson, borax and salt; Joseph Richards, Battle Mountain, copper ores; M. F. Randolph, Morey District, silver ores; J. A. Myrick, Virginia City, silver ores gold-bearing; V. W. Bell, French Corral, gold gravel and cement; James P. Higgins, Eureka, silver and lead ores gold-bearing; Theodore A. Page, native sulphur; S. Hancock, Belmont, silver ores; Charles G. Heath, Pioche, silver ores and rock salt; John Howell, Oneida District, silver ores; Captain E. H. Havens, Mineral Hill, silver ores; T. B. Hudson, Tybo, silver and lead ores; Henry Donnelly, Virginia City, silver ores gold-bearing; G. H. Drake, Hamilton, silver ores gold-bearing; Captain H. H. Day, Pioche, silver ores; Charles O. Stevenson, Gold Hill, amalgamating machine; J. C. Fall, Unionville, silver ores; J. Grimes, Belmont, silver ores; M. Browning, Churchill county, crude soda; T. R. Butler, Pioche, silver ores; George B. Clark, Reveille District, silver ores.

Without intention to preach, or claim to practice we commend to attention the following from a speech by J. J. Talbot, who recently died drunk in Elkhart, Indiana:

I had position high and holy. The demon tore from around me the robes of my sacred office and sent me forth churchless and godless, a very hissing and byword among men. Afterwards my voice was heard in the courts. But the dust gathered on my open book, and no foot fell across the threshold of the drunkard's office. I had money ample for all necessities, but it went to fill the coffers of the devils which possessed me. I had a home adorned with all that wealth and exquisite taste could suggest. The devil crossed its threshold and the night faded from its chambers. And thus I stand, a clergyman without a church, a barrister without a brief, a man with scarcely a friend, a soul without hope— all swallowed up in the maelstrom of drink.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

Four hundred and twenty-one children attend the public schools of Washoe county.

A new agitation has sprung up in Washington Territory for the annexation of the whole to the State of Oregon.

The Eureka Sentinel says: An average of 7,500 bushels of charcoal is now being received daily at the bins of the Richmond Company. This involves an expenditure of $2,250 each day.

Two of the Democratic nominees for the Assembly from Ormsby—H. R. Martin and Mr. Gibbons—having declined to run, the Democratic County Central Committee have appointed John McTarnahan and Milton R. Elstner to serve in their stead.

A Nevada City parson, while warning a Truckee congregation a couple of Sundays ago against the iniquities of the godless, had his hat stolen by some sacrilegious thief who slipped into the vestry. In addition to this, the collection wasn't enough to pay for the hat.

The Pacific Stock Exchange has declared a dividend out of its surplus earnings of $100 per month, to each member, payable on the first of each month. The profits of the institution to date are reported at $109,840.

Humboldt Register: Anybody can run a newspaper. All there is to do is to get a lot of type, a press, a pair of scissors, a paste-pot and brush, $20,000 in cash, a set of iron nerves—when there will be no more trouble in running a paper than there is in shutting up a church steeple first.

Black Hills Pioneer: He was coming down Main street the other day with a revolver in each bootleg, and just a little top-heavy, when a man happened to rub against him in passing. Our blood-thirsty hero of the boots jumped off the sidewalk, and flourishing a pistol aloft, yelled: "Now look yer everybody in this yer guleb; look at me and crawl! I'm Wild Cat Tip, from Bear Gulch. I did n't come to Deadwood to be insulted, so git out here a half-dozen of yer sons o' guns, an' form a line o' battle, 'cause I can't hold onto this yer hammer much longer; so trot 'em out." About this time some one in the crowd fired a pistol in the air, and simultaneously a rotten egg struck "Tip" between the eyes. Dropping his revolver and throwing both hands in the air, he yelled "I'm murdered," and fell heavily to the ground. After he realized just what had happened he straightened up, and looking around, exclaimed, while he wiped the decomposed egg from his face, "Now boys, that's a rough joke, but I'll stand it! I'll take it all, only let me see the calibre of the gun what shoots eggs." Not gaining the desired information, he silently stole away. So endeth the first chapter of "Wild Cat Tip, from Bear Gulch."

DURING the present week the remainder of the furniture, etc., at the Virginia Lodging-house will be sold at private sale. All persons desiring anything in that line can be accommodated and at reasonable figures. This chance will not be open after this week.

COGNAC, brandy, fine whisky, Holland gin, and old Jamaica rum, at T. C. Poudjé's.
